"The 23d of October the Chevalier de Modene deſcried a Sail off Cape Palos, to which he gave Chace; but perceiving her to be an Enemy's Ship of ſuperior Force, he tacked, and in his Turn crowded Sail to get away: But about 5 in the Evening, the Enemy came up with him, and after a ſharp Engagement of three Hours, compelled him to ſtrike. The Oiſeau received 90 Shot between Wind and Water, had 48 Men wounded, and 15 killed, among whom were Sieurs de Glaſſinus, Maupertuis, and St. Croix. Moſcow (in Ruſſia) Nov. 8. Two of the Officers who were concerned in the Plot againſt the Empreſs, have been this Morning degraded, and declared infamous, in the Square before the Caſtle of Cremelin, their Swords having been broke over their Heads.

It is notorious to the whole World, that ſince the Acceſſion of the late Empreſs Elizabeth to the preſent Time, the Puniſhment of Death was aboliſhed throughout the Empire; but the Abuſe which that Lenity had occaſioned, induced the high Tribunal to give Notice, that the Laws which preſcribe that Puniſhment for certain Crimes will be again put in Force.

Dantzick, Nov. 24. The Pruſſian Reſident in this City has of late been very diligent in purchaſing all the Horſes he can find in this Neighbourhood, and Provinces adjacent, which he ſends away as faſt as poſſible to Pomerania, where the People are in great Want of Cattle to cultivate their Lands.

Vienna, Dec. 6. They write from Conſtantinople, that the Truce which ſubſiſted for 25 Years, between this Court and the Porte, being expired, has been renewed for the ſame Term, and that the Ottoman Miniſtry gave our Miniſter the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of the moſt inviolable Friendſhip being preſerved between the two Courts.

M. Daun arrived here Yeſterday from Sileſia.

Ratiſbon, Dec. 7. The City of [illegible] has already paid 80,000 Florins to the Pruſſians; and the Imperial Cities of Winſheim and Rothenbourg, are each to furniſh 100,000 Crowns.

Dec. 9. The Pruſſians continue raiſing Contributions in the Counties of Wurtzbourg and Eichſtadt; and, ſince they left Nuremberg, they have extended to Dillingen and Guntzbourg in Suabia. It was ſaid Yeſterday, they were very near Ulm; and that another Detachment was marching by Oetingen towards Heilbron.

Neighbourhood of Nuremberg, Dec. 7. Nuremberg made General Kleiſt a Preſent of 1000 Ducats for the good Diſcipline he obſerved in that City. He inſiſted that for the Future they ſhould be neuter. A Neutrality hath been propoſed alſo to Anſpach, Bareith, and Wurtzbourg.

Nuremberg, Dec. 7. Beſides the Contributions, Cannon, and Military Stores, which have been already mentioned, General Kleiſt was ſupplied here with 10,000 Pair of Shoes, and [illegible] Pair of Boots. He carried away with him 18 Waggon Loads of Money, and Bills of Exchange to the Amount of [illegible] Crowns.

Hamburgh, Dec. [illegible] According to ſome Advices, the Daniſh Troops are going to be reduced.

Hamburgh, Dec. 14. The King of Pruſſia arrived at Leipſic the 5th Inſtant, accompanied by Gen. Seidlitz.

LONDON.

Dec. 23. Some Letters from Vienna remark, that they now ſee, but too late, the Conſequences of the Armiſtice concluded for Saxony: They ſay it is favourable to none but the King of Pruſſia, who has thereby found Means to execute the Project of invading Franconia, &c. which no Doubt was formed before the Truce was concluded.

The Duke de Nivernois has delivered no Paſſports for Britiſh Ships ſince the Signing of the Preliminaries, and will deliver none. All theſe Paſſports have been ſent to the Earl of Egremont, and all Applications to obtain them, muſt be made at his Lordſhip's Office only. All the Paſſports given for private Perſons by the Duke of Nivernois, have, and will be, always delivered gratis.

We are informed that General Howard's, Col. Lambert's, and Col. Frederick's Regiments are to embark from Portugal to Minorca, to garriſon that Iſland, and a Regiment from Gibraltar is to go on the ſame Service: The French Troops are ſoon to evacuate it.

A Letter from Ludworth, Dorſetſhire, dated Dec. 11.

"Laſt Sunday Evening, at Nine o'Clock, the Horizon clear, myſelf and another Perſon being near Ludlow-Caſtle, the Seat of Edward Weld, Eſq; we were ſurpriſed by a ſudden and radiant Light, which overſpread the Earth and Sea, equal to the Splendor of the Noon-Day Sun; looking directly perpendicular over us, we ſaw an Appearance refulgent as the Sun itſelf, in Form ſtraight as a Line, about eight Times the Diameter of the Full Moon in Length, in Breadth not an eighth Part of its Length; the Duration about a Minute. Afterwards it altered its Poſition, and changed into a ſerpentine Form, and ſeemed to evaporate in Smoke."

A Plan is now under Conſideration, to make the Port of London the moſt beautiful and convenient of any in Europe. About 500 Merchants intend to purchaſe out the Proprietors of Lands between London-Bridge and the Tower, and to extend the preſent free Quays and Wharfs. The Lands to be purchaſed may amount to 500,000 l. but the Glory of ſuch a public Deſign is far ſuperior to the Greatneſs of the Expence. The War has given great Enrichments to the trading Part of the Nation, and the forwarding of ſuch a public Act would be a juſt Acknowledgment of it.

An Order is come to [illegible] 8 Sail of Ships with their Maſts in, viz. the Dragon, Northumberland, Superb, Eſſex, Dorſetſhire, Montague, Anſon, and Shrewſbury.

In a private Letter from Holland, by Yeſterday's Mail, is the following Paſſage: "From all the Manœuvres of the King of Pruſſia, our Politicians prognoſticate that the Theatre of War will be changed; that the War, which is [illegible] between France and England, will [illegible] other Powers, and kindle another War, which [illegible] than before."

At Paris, the [illegible] of every [illegible] is [illegible] the Nation being [illegible] by the large Sums ſent Abroad. The Parliament of Brittanny hath forbid all Perſons from preſuming to interpoſe in Favour of the Jeſuits.

As French Paſſports come to 7l. 6s. 6d. in London, People are deſirous of knowing what Price Engliſh Paſſports bear at Paris, and it is imagined the next French Mail will bring that neceſſary Information.

The Topſham, Holland, from London and New-Caſtle to Boſton, is taken and carried into Ferrol.

A Number of our People who have been Priſoners of War in France, are daily expected to arrive in England, in Exchange for an equal Number of French Priſoners.

The Tin-Plate Workers, belonging to the Ordnance, are ſhortly to prepare a Model of a Building for the Exhibition of our grand Fireworks, which are to be played off at the Concluſion of the general Peace.

We hear Hans Stanley, Eſq; is going abroad to France on Affairs of Importance, and will ſet out on Chriſtmas-Day.

The Brig which was bound from London to the Havannah, taken by a Privateer belonging to St. Sebaſtian, and carried into that Port the 4th of December, proves to be the Hope, Elliot, loaded with Bale Goods. The Letter which brought the Account above ſays, that a Veſſel ſent Expreſs from the Havannah to England, is alſo taken by a Privateer, and carried into St. Sebaſtian.

Dec. 24. Spaniſh Paſſes are expected daily, to be iſſued in the ſame Manner as the French are.

Extract of a Letter from Vienna, Nov. 20.

"The laſt Letters from Luſatia adviſe, that the Pruſſians who lately paſſed through that Province ſpread Deſolation wherever they came. They left the Inhabitants neither Cattle nor Proviſions; in ſome Towns they did not leave them Bread for above three or four Days."

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Dec. 17.

"The Paſſage of the Engliſh Troops is not yet agreed to or ſettled. Though General Yorke hath given Aſſurances that they ſhall pay ready Money for every Thing that is furniſhed them, ſome Provinces are not ſatisfied: They alledge, that they have not yet been paid for what was furniſhed to the Troops of England, in their Paſſage through the Republic's Territories, in the laſt War. A Reſolution hath therefore been taken, to order the Count de Welderen, the States Miniſter at London, to make Repreſentation on this Head; and we expect that the Engliſh Commiſſaries, who are employed to regulate the preſent Paſſage, will be empowered to ſettle thoſe Arrears.

"Several Advices inform us, that a large Body of Pruſſians are on their March to come and take Poſſeſſion of Weſel, Gueldres, and the County of Cleves. This Corps will be reinforced by the greateſt Part of the Britiſh Legion, and ſeveral other Bodies of Light Troops which have been diſcharged from the Allied Army, and which, it is ſaid, are gone into the Service of the King of Pruſſia. Mean while it is preſumed that the Approach of theſe Pruſſians will be looked upon with an evil Eye by this Republic, where an Uneaſineſs is already viſible: But no Body dares to open their Mouths about it. From Bruſſels we are informed, that every Meaſure is taking in that Country to oppoſe the Enterprizes of the Pruſſians, and to be beforehand with them: That in order to make Head againſt them, Orders have been received from Vienna to enliſt all the Men that are diſcharged from the Troops of France; but that they are apprehenſive that all theſe Steps will prove too late."

Monſieur Bompart, with 11 Sail of the Line, 2 Frigates, and 3 Chebecks, is lately arrived at Toulon, after an idle Parade in the Gulfs of Sardinia, Tunis, and Malta, of 13 Months, without taking a ſingle Prize.

[illegible] of all the [illegible] in Holland, and it's a [illegible] with the [illegible] ſpirit [illegible] moment.

A very great Alteration is ſoon expected in the Syſtem of Affairs in the Empire of Germany; all the Circles and Allies of the Houſe of Auſtria exclaim bitterly againſt the Court of Vienna, for entering into a Suſpenſion of Arms with the King of Pruſſia during the Winter, without including them, by which the Pruſſians, by their extravagant Contributions, have ruined a great Number of their Inhabitants, and may be the Means of the Seat of War being brought into their Country, on which Account they are determined to ſolicit the King of Pruſſia for a Neutrality.

They write from Saxony of the 8th Inſtant, that the moſt eminent Merchants at Leipſic had been arreſted by the Pruſſians, and their Ware-houſes, Compting-houſes, &c. were ſealed up till the Contribution is paid.

Letters from Madrid of the 28th ult. aſſert, that the Spaniſh Troops returning out of Portugal, paid ready Money for every Thing they had from the Portugueſe.

It is ſaid that a Royal Country Seat will ſhortly be preſented to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, by his Majeſty.

The Queen has ſat for her Picture to the celebrated Miſs Read, who draws her Majeſty in a ſitting Poſture, with the young Prince in her Lap.

We are authoriſed to aſſure the Public, that what has been inſerted relating to ſeveral Lord Lieutenants reſigning their Lieutenancies, is without Foundation.

The Incurſions of the King of Pruſſia into the Empire, give all the neighbouring States the greateſt Uneaſineſs, not only by the heavy Contributions levied in the ſeveral States through which his Troops paſs, but ſtill more on Account of the Uncertainty of their Object, and the uncommon Myſteriouſneſs obſerved by that Monarch with Reſpect to his preſent Intentions.

It was ſtrongly reported laſt Night, that Orders had been given not to diſcharge any more Men from either Army, Navy, or Militia, on Account, as it is ſaid, of ſome Advices received from abroad.

They write from Cleves of the 14th Inſt. that ſince the Ceſſation of Arms has been publiſhed the French are evacuating thoſe Provinces; their Cannon and Ammunition they have ſent away from Rees, Weſel and Gueldres, to Mentz; the Volunteers of Dauphine and Clermont are ſtill in the Neighbourhood of Rees, to conſume the remaining Part of their Proviſions, &c. the greateſt Part of which were ſold at public Auction at Weſel; and that the Joy of the Inhabitants was beyond expreſſing on the ſudden Change of Affairs, and Hope of being ſoon protected and garriſoned by Troops of their lawful Sovereign the King of Pruſſia.

They write from Francfort of the 12th Inſtant, that the Duke of Wurtemberg had drawn a Chain with his Troops all along the Frontiers of his Dominions, to prevent the Pruſſians from invading his Duchy; and that the Saxons under Prince Xaverius of Poland, were too inconſiderable to face the Pruſſians in Franconia, ſo it is thought they will meet with no Oppoſition except it be from Bohemia.

Dec. 25. We have received Advice from the Hague, that the firſt and ſecond Diviſions of the Britiſh Foot-Guards, entered their Territories on the 1ſt and 3d Inſtant, on their March to Williamſtadt; they are ſucceſſively followed by the other Diviſions; and it is computed, the whole Corps of Britiſh Troops will have entered the Territories of the Republic by the 21ſt of this Month.

The laſt Letters from Germany aſſert, that the Pruſſians under General Kleiſt, who had penetrated into Franconia, had taken the Fortreſs of Forcheim, in the Biſhopric of Wurtzbourg, and were puſhing on their Operations in Franconia, and raiſing large Contributions.

By Letters from Francfort, dated December 14, we learn, that 17 Regiments of French Troops have croſſed the Maes, within theſe 8 Days paſt, on their Way to France. Many of the Regiments are little more than Half complete, and their Countenances and Apparel plainly ſhew that it is high Time they were got into Winter-Quarters. The Officers ſay, that moſt of their Regiments will be broke, or reformed, ſoon after their Arrival in France.

We are informed, that no Spaniſh Paſſes are yet arrived, or have been here, but are expected by the next French or Flanders Mails.

The [illegible], Auld, and Antelope, Haſtie, are arrived at Lochindale from Virginia, in a Paſſage of nine Weeks and two Days; 7½ per Cent. Inſurance had been given on them.

It is now ſaid, that no more than Four Millions will be raiſed for the Service of the preſent Year, and that Three and an Half per Cent. only will be given for it, with a Lottery Ticket of 5 l. Two Millions of the above Sum are already ſubſcribed.

It is ſaid three different Loans of Money are now negociating in Holland, for three ſundry Courts in Europe.

We hear that the Right Honourable Earl Gower has kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand at St. James's, on being appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Lord Sandys is to ſucceed Earl Gower as Maſter of the Great Wardrobe. And,

The Right Honourable Charles Townſhend to be Firſt Lord of Trade.

Sir Richard Littleton is appointed Governor, and Colonel Barre, Member of Parliament for Wycomb, Lieutenant Governor of Minorca.

Yeſterday there was a great Levee at St. James's, and alſo a great Board of Treaſury, on Affairs of Importance.

The John and Bella, Green, one of the Fleet from Virginia, is arrived at Londonderry.

Dec. 27. A French Gentleman lately arrived from that Country, declared, that he never was ſo much ſurprized at any Thing as to ſee the amazing Buſineſs going forwards as he paſſed through London; the common Diſcourſe in France being, when he left it, that we were ſo far undone, amidſt our Succeſſes, that we were become Bankrupt, and unable to raiſe any more Money for carrying on the War.

We are informed there are already arrived in this Kingdom from France, Holland, &c. a Number of Agents, to buy up, on Commiſſions, as many Army Horſes as they can procure from thoſe Troops which will be diſbanded ſoon after their Arrival in England.

They write from Paris, that the Dukes of Bedford and Praſlin confer ſo often together, and the two Courts are ſo eager to reſtore Tranquility, that if no unlucky Incidents intervene, the Definitive Treaty may be concluded about the Middle of January.

We hear that the Merchants who petitioned for ſome Proviſion to be made for ſecuring their Effects in the Conquered Iſlands, have received all the Satiſfaction that could be given them.

Extenſive Schemes are formed, and, as we are told, already digeſted, for the Reduction of the national Debt, and other Articles of public Œconomy; ſuch as cannot fail to make this Nation, if we ourſelves are not unworthy to be ſo, a moſt happy People.——As an Inſtance of what we may expect, under thoſe who are now in the Management of the public Treaſure, it is confidently aſſerted, that the apparent Savings at a certain Board at this time, amount to no leſs a Sum than 40,000 l. per Month.

Orders are given for a proper Liſt to be prepared of all the Land and Seamen in his Majeſty's Service, in their different Ranks, that have been killed during the War, in order to ſettle proper Penſions on their Widows, during their Lives.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.

On Saturday laſt the Hero Privateer, Captain Appowen, of this Port, returned from a Cruize (laſt from Providence) and brought two of his Prizes, Sloops, with him.——Beſides the Veſſels formerly mentioned to be taken by Captain Appowen, a few Days before the Ceſſation of Hoſtilities took Place, he took a Sloop, bound to Cape François from St. Euſtatius; but a Man of War appearing before ſhe ſtruck, the Veſſel was ordered to Jamaica.

The ſame Day Captain [illegible] arrived here from South-Carolina, with whom came Paſſenger Mr. Harris of this Place.——He was bound to Guadaloupe from Martinico, in the Sloop Betſy, Captain Guttridge, of Barbados, and on the 24th of December the Veſſel foundered, when the People (ſix in Number) took to the Boat, having Time only to take Thirty-nine Biſcuit, and about two Gallons of Water, with them, upon which, and what Rain Water they got, they lived betwixt nine and ten Days and were almoſt ſpent, when they made the Spaniſh Main, where there was a ſmall Town, about 30 Miles from Laguira, but could not get aſhore with their Boat, the Surf was ſo high; upon which they held up a white Handkerchief, and ſome Spaniards ſwam to them and carried them aſhore; where they were kindly uſed, and, after recovering their Strength, carried to Laguira, for Examination, and confined in a bad Priſon; but after being examined, and the Commandant finding that Mr. Harris had Connections with a Friend of his in Barbados, he was ſet at Liberty, and well treated; and, by his Means, all the other Priſoners were likewiſe releaſed, and ſent to Coracoa.

While Mr. Harris was at Laguira, three large Ships, of 24, 22, and 20 Guns, ſaid to have large Sums of Money on board, and laden with Cocoa in Bulk, ſailed for Old Spain; and while he was in Carolina, there was a Report there, that one of our Men of War had taken a rich Cocoa Man, and carried her to Jamaica; which agreed with the Time of their Sailing, and was believed to be one of them.

From Liſbon we have Advice, that His Majeſty's Ship Marlborough foundered at Sea, on her Paſſage from the Havannah to England; but that the Antelope Man of War luckily fell in with her, and took out a great Quantity of Money, which ſhe had on board, and all the Men, and carried it and them to Liſbon.

AT the repeated Sollicitations of ſeveral Perſons, the OHIO COMPANY have agreed to lay off a Number of LOTS for a TOWN at Fort Cumberland, near the Mouth of Wills's Creek, on Patowmack River, in the Province of Maryland; and that each Purchaſer may have an Opportunity of attending, and chooſing the Lots he may judge moſt convenient, they will be SOLD to the higheſt BIDDERS on Friday the 15th of April.

Any one who will conſult the Maps muſt ſee that Fort Cumberland, from it's natural Situation and Contiguity to that very extenſive and fertile Country on the Ohio and its Waters, muſt be the Key to all that valuable Settlement; it being the higheſt and moſt convenient Landing-place for the Inhabitants on the other Side the Allegheny Mountains, on all the River Patowmack, which affords a Water-Carriage, that with a very inconſiderable Expence, might be rendered ſafe, certain and eaſy, at all Seaſons of the Year, from the Great Falls to the Spot now propoſed for a Town. It is about 75 Miles Land-Carriage to the Monongahela, which is navigable to the Ohio for flat-bottomed Boats or Battoes; and not more than 65 Miles to the Yaughyaughgaine, where the Road, as it is at preſent cleared to Pittſburg, croſſes; to which Place the Indians frequently, before the War, brought up their Battoes loaded with Skins: And all who are acquainted with the Country agree, that a very good Waggon Road may be made to that very Spot, or even a few Miles lower down the River, which would reduce the Diſtance from thence to Fort Cumberland at leaſt 15 Miles. The Land-Carriage from Pimmit's Warehouſe, at the Little Falls, which is the higheſt Tide Water of Patowmack, to the Great Falls, does not exceed 12 Miles; and the Manufactures of Great-Britain may be tranſported by the Patowmack to the Ohio, and it's Produce or Furs remitted through the ſame Channel, with only 90 Miles Land-Carriage at the moſt.

Fort Cumberland is about 125 Miles from Pittſburg, 30 from Fort Bedford, 60 from Wincheſter, Land-Carriage, good Waggon Roads, and 100 Miles Water-Carriage from the Mouth of Conococheague Creek, in Maryland.

The Day the LOTS are Sold the OHIO COMPANY will LET to the higheſt Bidder, for a Term of Years, Two very good Store-Houſes, oppoſite to Fort Cumberland, in Virginia, one 45 by 25, with a Counting-Room and Lodging-Room at one End, the other 44 by 20, with proper Conveniences for a Family to live in, two Stories high each, beſides Garrets, with good dry Cellars fit for ſtoring Skins, the whole Size of the Houſes, and a Kitchen, Stable for 12 Horſes, Meat-Houſe and Dairy; there are Two good Gardens, which will be given to the Perſon who Rents the Houſes. The whole entirely new, and will be completely finiſhed, and fit to enter upon immediately; and the Perſon who takes the Store-Houſes, may alſo have a Leaſe, for a Term of Years, of as much Land adjacent to them as he chuſes. Any one deſirous to treat privately for the Store-Houſes, &c. before the Day of Sale, or the Town Lots, may know the Terms by applying to the Subſcriber, who will attend at Fort Cumberland the 15th Day of April [illegible] to deliver the Purchaſers Deeds for their Lots.
